Interpreting for Mexico Outreach with Bayside Church

First of all, thank you for volunteering or thinking about being part of this mission trip. The interpreter role is a very important duty on this trip. We could not do this without you. You will be translating conversations between the adult leaders, students, children and pastors. In a way, the interpreter can be seen as a leadership role with the interpreter and the adult leader working together to keep the communication flowing.

WHAT TO EXPECT

You will be assigned to a specific team and you will travel and serve with them. We will have English/Spanish Bibles available so there will be no need to interpret when Bible reading is taking place. We will sometimes be translating in front of the congregations but will mostly be translating between the team and Mexican children. Translating for prayers is not required since God understands Spanish and English but is optional depending on the situation and what feels comfortable. Please note, if you are over 25 with a valid driver's license, we will need you to drive. Additionally, there will be one evening that the pastors are invited to base camp and we ask that you stay with your assigned pastor for that evening. We will need all interpreters available that night for welcoming our guests and to help direct people to where they need to go. Lastly, we will have meetings right after the leader meeting every morning.

COST:

It's on us. Bayside pays for your trip as a show of appreciation for coming on this mission's trip. Email Mexicooutreach@baysideonline.com to ask questions and receive further steps on how to register.

WHAT TO BRING

Cot, sleeping bag, snacks, clothes for the week, valid passport or green card, and the money for food while traveling to/from Mexico (all other food will be provided). For a full packing list, see Mexico Outreach website.

FLEXI-CALI

We like to call our Mexico Outreach trip to Mexicali "Flexi-cali" because sometimes things don't always go according to the plan and we need you to be patient and flexible with the schedules and with other volunteers. Know that all changes are made with the best of intentions. If you have any specific questions or need more information, please don't hesitate to contact us.
